

Arthur J. Clark

Art is a trusted advisor to many prominent Oregon businesses, working with clients on a wide range of business matters, including real estate, financing, mergers and acquisitions, and other business transactions, as well as entity organization and planning.

Art has particular expertise in business succession planning and estate planning. He advises many family businesses, helping them to achieve their long term goals through organizing ownership to operate efficiently, saving unnecessary taxes, meeting the financial needs of the owners, and smoothly transitioning to the next generation. Art also helps individuals and families with estate and tax planning matters.

Working with trustees and personal representatives, Art provides experienced counsel, supporting smooth and efficient probate and trust administration work.

A native of Eugene, Art has three grown children. He spends his free time staying in shape for lots of hiking, climbing, and backpacking. Art is particularly noted for his igloo building skill during winter outings in the Oregon Cascades.
