

Nicholas M. Frost

An experienced advisor at the intersection of estate planning and counseling businesses, Nick brings a valuable base of knowledge to working with clients.

While practicing in Chicago and Portland, Nick built a sturdy foundation in complex commercial financial transactions which augments his focused experience on estate and business planning. He has represented clients of all sizes, including publicly traded companies, non-profit entities, privately held family businesses, and individuals.

After moving to Oregon from the Midwest over a decade ago, Nick has settled in the local community where he and his wife now raise their two children. He is a member of the Eugene Estate Planning Council and the Eugene Springfield Tax Association, and regularly presents on trusts, estates, and business planning topics. He also is a past member of the Executive Committee of the Oregon State Bar's Estate Planning and Administration section and has taught as an adjunct instructor at the University of Oregon School of Law. He is a committee member and past Board member of the United Way of Lane County.

PRACTICE EMPHASIS

- Trusts and Estate Planning
- Business Organizations
- Business Transactions
- Business Succession Planning

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

- Planning for Succession and Transfer of Business Ownership and Management
- Individual Estate Planning for clients from high net worth to moderate estates
- Probate and Trust Administration
- Business Entity Selection and Formation
- Acquisitions and Sales of Businesses and Assets
- Commercial Loan Transactions
- General Corporate Governance and Business Operational Issues

EDUCATION

- University of Michigan, J.D. (2006) cum laude
- University of Michigan, B.A. (2003) with high distinction, Phi Beta Kappa