

Logan J. Perrien Naccarato

Logan is a Creditors' Rights attorney who focuses on helping our clients navigate rough patches that arise in the process of collections, bankruptcy, and foreclosures. He began his law career at a boutique law firm in Eugene where he handled a wide variety of landlord-tenant matters and complex real property litigation.

Outside of practicing law, Logan enjoys hiking, running, cooking, tabletop games, and spending time with his partner and their two cats.
