

Mathew S. Roundy

Mat focuses on business litigation and has a diverse litigation background shaped by judicial clerkships at the state trial court, state supreme court, and federal district court levels in Utah, Montana, and Nevada. He has also represented plaintiffs in complex civil litigation. Mat is licensed to practice in Utah and is provisionally licensed in Oregon while completing the licensure process.

Mat prides himself on a client-oriented approach to his work and enjoys helping clients approach and solve problems in a practical manner. Outside of the office, Mat enjoys spending time with his family, often adventuring outdoors or rooting for their favorite athletic teams.

PRACTICE EMPHASIS

- Complex Business and Commercial Litigation
- Labor & Employment Litigation
- Real Property Litigation
- Regulatory Compliance

ADMISSIONS

- Utah
- Oregon, Provisional Licensee

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

- Labor & Employment
- Litigation

EDUCATION

- University of Oregon School of Law, J.D., 2020 Order of the Coif
- Utah State University, B.A. (2016), cum laude

ACTIVITIES

- 2025 Utah Association for Justice Article of the Year