Jonathan D. Shaw

Jonathan's practice areas include business litigation and employment, which take many forms but always involve complicated problem solving and precise legal thinking. Jonathan graduated in the top 10% of his class from the University of Oregon School of Law, earning initiation into the prestigious Order of the Coif. Prior to beginning his career in law, Jonathan worked in social services as a case manager for high school aged clients, where he developed his passion for helping others achieve their goals.

Outside of the office, Jonathan enjoys spending time with his wife and daughter, playing disc golf at Alton Baker Park, rock climbing, cheering on the Ducks, and, when he can, going backpacking throughout the Pacific Northwest.
